

2002 Organizational Meeting for CICIS UCB

Saturday April 6, 2002 Randolph Starn, Welcome from the Italian Studies Program

Panel: Recent Trends in Early Modern Italian Studies

Chair: John Marino (UCSD) Albert Russell Ascoli (UCB), "Machiavelli and the 'Public Sphere'" Thomas Dandeleit (UCB), "Politics" Joanne Ferraro (SDSU), "Marriage and the Family"

Comments by Carla Freccero (UCSC) and Joanna Woods-Marsden (UCLA)

Afternoon Session, 2PM-4

Chair: Margaret Brose (UCSC) Panel: Plans and Prospects for Italian Studies in California

Related Sponsored Lectures, 2002-3

Italian Early Modernities Seminar Lecture Series, 2002-2003

October 20. Dr. Jennifer Heindl (Arizona State University) "The Anonymous Life of Cola di Rienzo and the Crisis of the 14th Century"

October 27. Prof. John Marino (UCSD) "Historical Perspectives on the Italian Wars after 1494" October 24. Robert Williams (UCSB) "Raphael's Modernity"

November 25. Prof. Mario Biagioli (Harvard) "The Modernity of Galileo"

February 12. Prof. John O'Malley (Weston Jesuit School of Theology) "Trent and the Making of Modern Catholicism"

February 13. Prof. Edward Muir (Northwestern University) "Is Trust a Condition of Italian Modernity?"

Cosponsored Lectures, 2002-3

June 12, 2002. Massimo D'Alema

March 3. Maurizio Forte of the Consiglio Nazionale delle Ricerche in Rome

March 3. Prof. Margherita Heyer-Caput (UC Davis) "Redesigning the Deleddian Canon: 'regionalismo'? 'verismo'? 'decadentismo'?"

April 21. Richard Samuels (MIT) "Machiavelli's Children: Leadership and Historical Choices in Italy and Japan" April 24. Prof. Keala Jewell (Dartmouth) "Surreal Rome: Giorgio de Chirico in the 1920s"

May 1. Federico Rampini West Coast Correspondent, La Repubblica "The Struggle between Foreign-Led Modernization and Italian Post-Modernity"