

Bodies and Boundaries, 1500-1800

The Early Modern Center's Annual Conference
March 9-10th, 2018

Keynote Speakers:

Laurie Shannon, Northwestern University

"Staging 'Live Creatures':

Human Boundedness from Shakespeare's Crab to King Lear (with Sheep)"

Michelle Burnham, Santa Clara University

"Bodies at Risk: The Global Pacific in the Eighteenth Century"

March 9th: Mosher Alumni Hall, 1:00 PM - 5:00 PM

March 10th: McCune Conference Room, 9:30 AM - 5:30 PM

Proudly cosponsored by the College of Creative Studies; the Departments of Comparative Literature, English, French and Italian, Germanic and Slavic Studies, History, Linguistics, Philosophy, and Spanish and Portuguese; the Graduate Division; and the Interdisciplinary Humanities Center at the University of California, Santa Barbara.

