

THE 2024 ARTHUR N. RUPE GREAT DEBATE

Is Housing a Human Right?

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 13 | 7:30 PM | CAMPBELL HALL

FREE PUBLIC EVENT

The dramatic housing shortage in California affects millions of residents and leads thousands to homelessness. Experts will wrestle with some of our biggest challenges, from building affordable housing to creating pathways from homelessness to shelter and housing. The event will include an audience Q&A.

LEARN MORE AT BIT.LY/RUPE-IHC

ANDY BALES

Former President and CEO,
Union Rescue Mission

DAVID GARCIA

Policy Director, Turner Center for Housing Innovation, University of California, Berkeley

RASHEEDAH PHILLIPS

Director of Housing, PolicyLink

ERIC TARS

Senior Policy Director, National Homelessness Law Center

Moderator:

LARRY MANTLE

Host of AirTalk with Larry Mantle on
NPR member station LAist 89.3

Presented by the UC Santa Barbara College of Letters and Science and co-presented by the Interdisciplinary Humanities Center and Arts and Lectures. Made possible by an endowment from the Arthur N. Rupe Foundation

INTERDISCIPLINARY Humanities
CENTER

UC SANTA BARBARA

UC SANTA BARBARA
ARTS & LECTURES