

Luis Leal Award

for Distinction in Chicano/Latino Literature

2024 February 7
4 PM

McCune Room

6th Floor
Interdisciplinary Humanities Center

free and open to public

Gustavo Arellano

Award-winning columnist for the Los Angeles Times

Author of "Taco USA: How Mexican Food Conquered America" and "A People's Guide to Orange County"

For more information contact Prof. Mario T. García garcia@history.ucsb.edu

SPONSORS

Office of the Chancellor | Office of the Executive Vice Chancellor | Office of the Vice Chancellor for Diversity | Chicano Studies Institute | Department of Chicana and Chicano Studies | Equal Opportunity & Discrimination Prevention Office | Luis Leal Endowed Chair | Educational Opportunity Program | Department of Spanish & Portuguese | Latin American and Iberian Studies | Chicano/Latino Research Group IHC | Interdisciplinary Humanities Center | Department of Communications