TAO LEIGH GOFFE

Hunter College, City University of New York

Join the Environmental and Postcolonial Media Theories RFG for a conversation with Dr. Tao Leigh Goffe about her work, “Guano in Their Destiny’: Race, Geology, and a Philosophy of Indenture,” and beyond.

Dr. Tao Leigh Goffe is an associate professor of literary theory and cultural history with a focus on the environmental humanities and geology in the Department of Africana, Puerto Rican and Latino Studies at Hunter College, City University of New York. Dr. Goffe’s current work builds on her long-standing research interest in the intersection of climate, race, and digital technologies.

Sponsored by the IHC’s Environmental and Postcolonial Media Theories Research Focus Group, Asian/American Studies Collective, and Wireframe
