

Research Focus Group Symposium: Historical Memory in Narrative: Undergraduate Research Showcase

JUN
3
TUE

9:00–11:00 AM

Phelps Hall, Room 6206C and Zoom bit.ly/GCM-IHC

TIA TRINH
ISABELLA WILLIAMS

Historical Memory in Narrative is the Global Childhood Media Research Focus Group's third annual undergraduate research showcase. It features multidisciplinary presentations of undergraduate research related to childhood, including senior honors thesis research in Comparative Literature by Isabella Williams and research on Writing and Literature by Tia Trinh in the College of Creative Studies.

"The Other Cinderella Story: A Social Examination of Cinderella's Adaptability for Children"

Isabella Williams '25 (Comparative Literature)

"Rewriting Silence: Preserving Cultural Memory and Reclaiming Narrative in Children's Literature on Japanese Internment"

Tia Trinh '25 (College of Creative Studies Writing and Literature)

IHC Events

Sponsored by the IHC's Global Childhood Media Research Focus Group